Foreword

The ceremony of graduation is at last upon us, the Seniors of 1950, who only four short years ago were greatly impressed by the prospect of being high school students. Deeply engraved in our hearts are fond memories of the joys we have shared and the lasting friendships which have been formed.

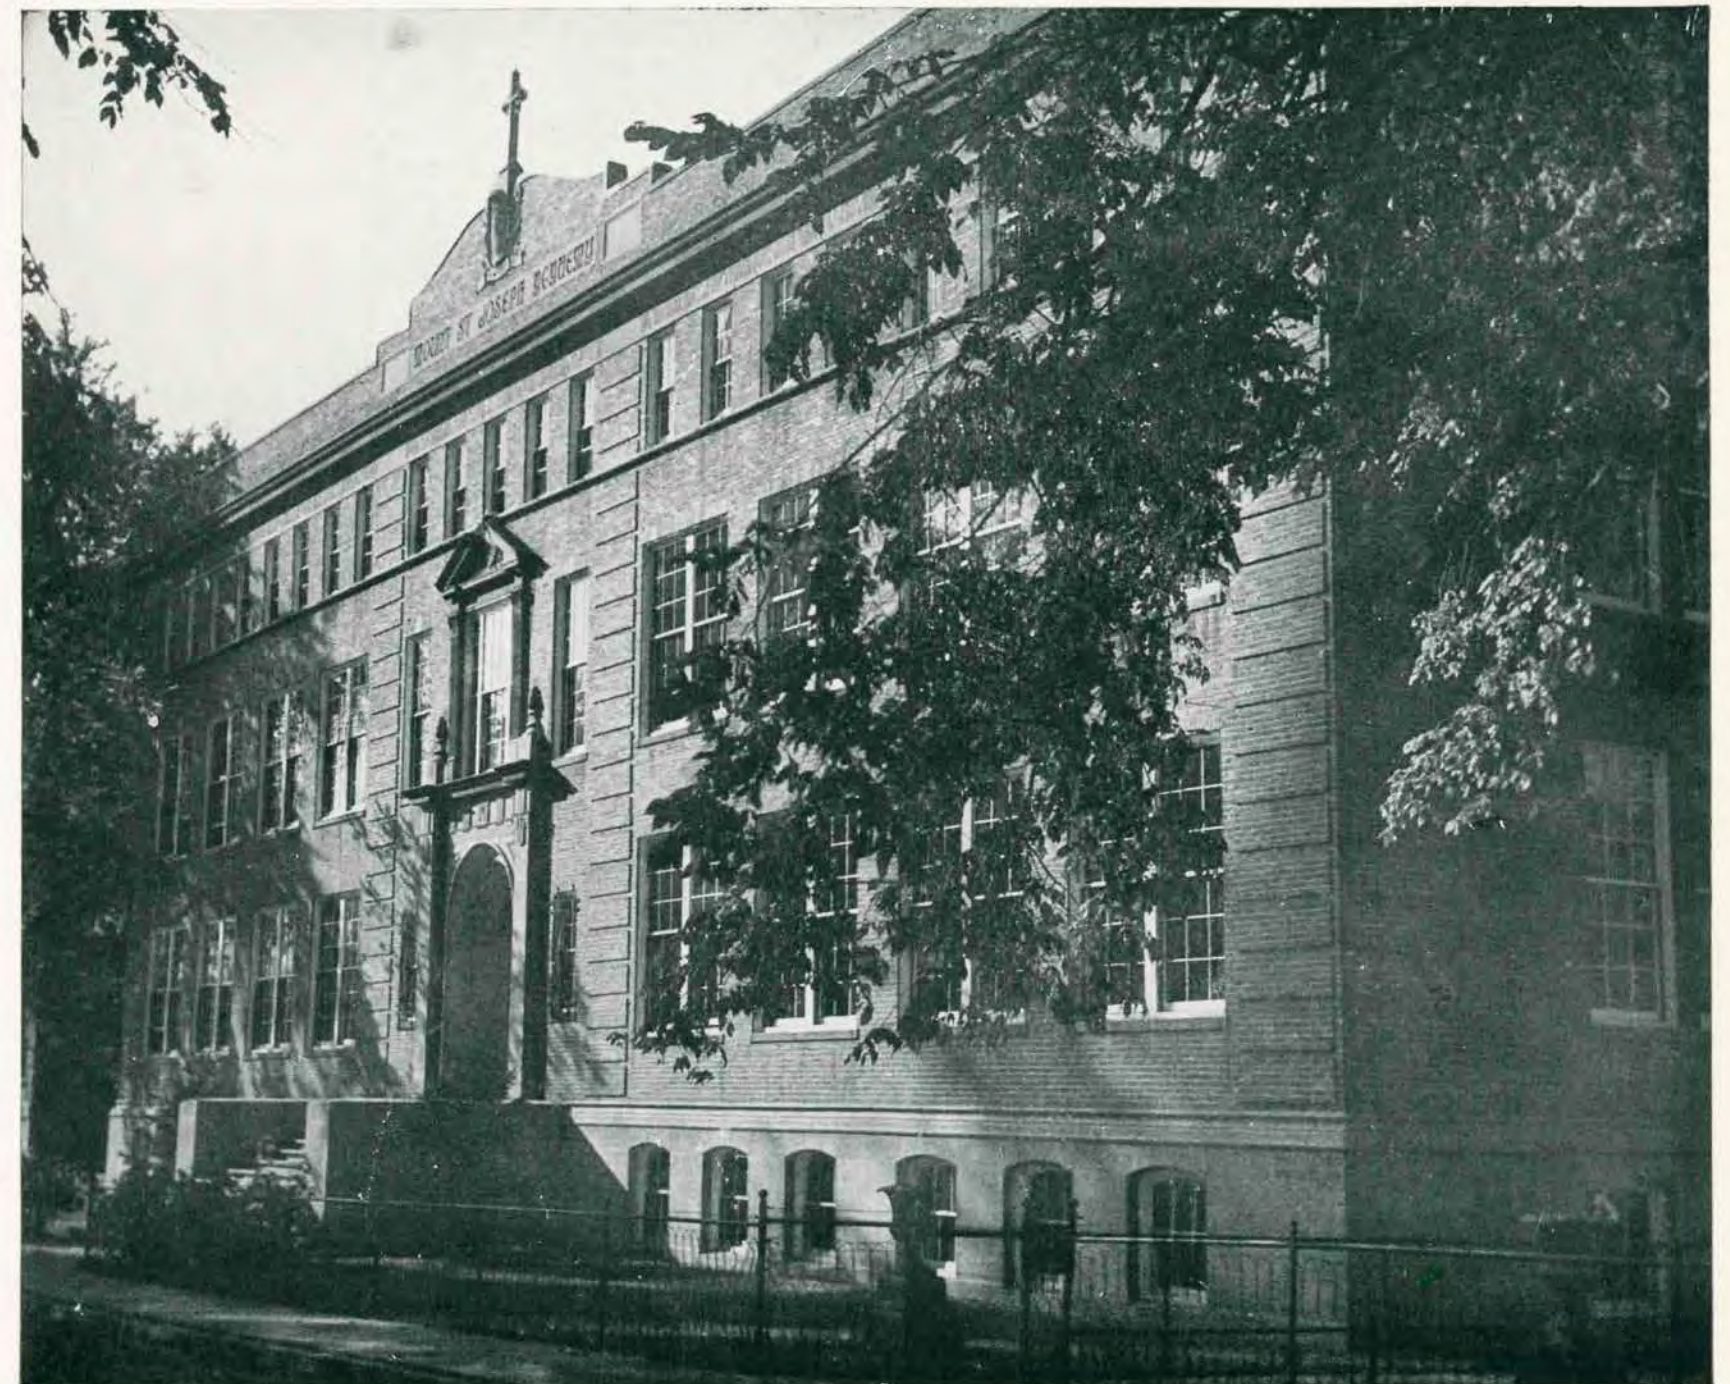

We have now completed our training and must take our places in the world as men and women, each with a task to perform. Our school's principles and the watchful guidance of our teachers have fully prepared us for the part we will play in the drama of life.

As each member of our class follows his special path into the future, the lasting influence of Mt. St. Joseph Academy will guide him to success.

SAINT JOSEPH

Dedication

It is our sincere desire that every incident and memory recorded herein may in future years, recall to each one of us the support and aid obtained from Saint Joseph during the happy years at the Academy, and influence us so that we may turn again to him for help and guidance. It is with this intention, that we, the Class of 1950 humbly dedicate our Annual to our Holy Patron.

THE 1950

MOUNT EDITORIAL BOARD EDITOR'S NOTE

Throughout the following pages, we, the Senior Class of 1950, have strived to capture in print our four years as students at the Mount. This is depicted in classroom scenes, sports, social activities, clubs, drama and proms, and have been put on paper where all may see the accomplishment of our work as a class. Yet, locked in our own private books of memory are the spontaneous jokes, numberless cartoons sketched on an impulse, and the strains of "Happy Birthday" which we all shared from day to day.

If, in years to come, the contents of this yearbook bring a happy recollection of the "good old days" and a slight tug at the heartstrings, we shall feel that the aim of this annual has been fully realized—for the bond of M. S. J.'s friendliness can never be broken.

It is the hope of the staff that the compiling of this annual, under the guidance of Sister Mary Barbara, will be the crowning achievement of our Senior year. We sincerely hope that all who read it will enjoy this edition of the "Mount."

MARY E. TEREZINI,
Editor-in-Chief.

MOUNT BUSINESS BOARD

In presenting the 1950 edition of the Mount St. Joseph Academy Yearbook, the Business Board wishes to express the gratitude of the Faculty and Students to the business men and women of the city and surrounding areas for their generous contributions and assistance which made it possible to finance this project.

The splendid cooperation of the members of the Class is another factor to be noted. Our thanks are hereby expressed to all concerned in its success.

A Message to the Class of 1950

With sincere congratulations and best wishes to you of the class of 1950 goes also a fervent prayer. You leave Mount Saint Joseph to enter a world far more anti-Christian than you can now realize. We have labored to prepare you for adult living, true; but we have more especially labored to prepare you for eternal living. My prayer for you as you depart then, is a sincere prayer that amid all the hopes and fears, successes and failures of your future years you will ever be inspired, consoled and guided by this fundamental thought—"What does it profit a man if he gain the world but suffer the loss of his own soul?" or conversely—"What does it harm a man if he suffers the loss of the whole world but gain eternal life for his soul?" God bless you.

FATHER LYNCH

To the Faculty

Four of the most important years of our lives are now drawing to a close. It was during this time that we formed the habits of living, and personality traits which we will carry with us through the coming years.

We have learned far more from you than the courses required of a school curriculum. You, dear teachers, have given us standards of life—encouraged us in our wildest visions of fame—and, though unknowingly, have been our ideals.

And now comes our departure from the friendliness of Mt. St. Joseph. We know that you, who have always understood us, will find in our simple "Thank you"—all the volumes of gratitude which words could never properly express.

President's Address

Tonight we are presenting our Class Night Program. Friday evening we will receive our diplomas at our Graduation Exercises at St. Peter's Church. Both of these events signify that we have come to the end of our high school days, and that we have achieved the goal for which we have been striving for the past four years.

As we recall that memorable day, four years ago, when we entered Mt. St. Joseph as freshmen, we were quite sure that graduation seemed too far off to merit even a passing thought. Tonight we realize with mingled feelings of joy and regret that it is a reality.

We began our education as children in the grades. Helped and encouraged by our teachers, and protected by the love and interest of our parents we completed our grammar school training and entered the Academy. We have enjoyed these past four years of studying and working together in our various activities at the Mount.

Now that we have finished high school, we must rely, to greater extent than formerly on our own efforts. We will have to make choices and decisions, as we mingle with our associates in college or in the business world. This should not be too difficult, however, if we make good use of the advantages that our Catholic high school education has afforded us.

In the name of the Class of 1950, I extend our sincere appreciation to our Principal, Father Lynch, to our Sister teachers, to Miss Smith, Mr. Moore, to Coach Casey and to Coach Rounds for all that they have done for us during our four happy years at Mt. St. Joseph.

Thank You, M. S. J.

The bells of Mount Saint Joseph's
For four short years have rung.
The class of 1950
Its final praise has sung.
And now at our Commencement
Time for farewells has come.

Forever we'll remember
The lessons taught with care;
Not books alone, but rather
A way of life with prayer.
Our christian education—
A jewel beyond compare.

Our thanks go out to others,
To whom we owe this day.
Friendships kept within our hearts
Sustain us on our way.
So forward class of '50,
Farewell! dear M. S. J.

I

The time has come to bid farewell
To you, dear M. S. J.;
Four happy years we've spent with you,
In loving mem'ry dwell.

CHORUS

God keep thee, Mt. St. Joseph,
The school we love so well;
Of friendships made and knowledge gained,
'Twill be our pride to tell.

II

When we have left thy loving care,
With courage we go forth;
To render service is our aim,
God's guiding love, our torch.

III

Dear M. S. J., from you we go,
Inspired by faith in thee;
A credit, always, to your name,
May we, your children, be.

Class History

In the fall of 1946 Mount Saint Joseph opened its portals to receive an eager but timid group of freshmen. We made the usual blunders in finding classes and orientating ourselves to a new school and a new curriculum. However, we soon got into the swing of things, the boys going out for football and the girls trying out for the cheering squad.

On October 24 the Freshman Reception was held. We were terrified at the anticipation of this event, but we lived through the ordeal and even managed to enjoy ourselves to a certain extent.

Our joy and pride were unbounded, when on November 11 we defeated Rutland High School to become city and state champs in football.

The annual minstrel show was presented in November. Many of the Freshman boys took part in the chorus. Frank Coladonato, John Seaver, and Leon Bernardo were soloists from our class.

Time went by quickly and sooner than we realized it, the basketball tournament was about to take place. We beat Brattleboro in the tournament but lost to Rutland High. However, all told, we had a successful hoop season.

In April many of us tried out for the editorial board of the Clarion. Mary Terenzini, Patricia Abatiell, Barbara Mullen, and Patricia Blanchard won places on the staff as feature writers.

Soon after this there were tryouts for the baseball team. Andrew Orzel and Leon Bernardo were chosen from our class. We had a successful season in this, too, and were the city champs.

The May Procession will always remain for us a memorable pledge of the love for the Blessed Mother shown at the Academy. Despite a downpour of rain the students chose to march to Mary's Grotto so that her month would be opened with a tribute of our love and our trust in her.

In the middle of May we gave special attention to our studies, for not one, but two sets of examinations were looming on the horizon. First were the dread University examinations, and then the finals. At this time many of us helped the flood victims to readjust themselves and to provide temporary shelter during those trying weeks. This work continued on during the summer, too.

Our first year at the Mount was now practically at an end. Happy days were in store for us in the prospects of a long summer vacation and the anticipation of becoming Sophomores in September.

We numbered 113 "grown-up" sophomores.

In September of our second year, Mr. Walter Moore became a member of the faculty. He got us off with a "flying start"—Aeronautics. Two new courses were added to our curriculum—Senior Art and Mechanical Drawing. As we were the pioneer art students we felt pretty good in finding the art teacher, Mr. Laverick, wanting to continue with us.

Outstanding always in our lives will be the Enthronement of the Sacred Heart which took place at the Academy during the month of October. With all our hearts we publicly proclaimed the Kingship of Christ over family and society.

We were always looking for new experiences in school—we had one when the new marking system was adopted. Suddenly, we saw D's and E's—we thought a 70 was a pretty fair mark on a card, but a D—Oh!

Then the time periods were changed, the former seven forty-minute periods, were changed to six fifty-minute periods; the additional ten minutes was for the purpose of study under the guidance of teachers, thus eliminating the former seventh period. Dismissal was at three o'clock.

The Annual Minstrel was one of the Highlights of November, and as usual, with its songs and jokes, furnished real entertainment for capacity audiences.

The Snowball Dance, put on by the Clarion staff, was held at the K of C. Several dances after the games were held there during the fall and winter.

In February of 1949, Assistant Coach "Sal" Somma, resigned. Mr. Rounds succeeded him as assistant coach in football, and basketball, and head coach in baseball.

When we returned to school after Easter vacation we realized that our reign as sophomores was fast coming to a close. With high hopes of new fields to conquer, as juniors, we began to plan already what we would do as third year students at the Academy.

One of the most enjoyable activities of our junior year was the Junior Prom with Doreen Dunn and Bill Levins chosen as the "royal couple" of this exciting event.

The girls chosen for Girls' State were: Marian Segale, Jean Solari, Martha Fagan, Verna Senecal and Betty Troumbley. Boys' State was represented by Bill Levins, Francis Perry, Andy Orzel, Bill Allard, Phil Murphy and Jack Burke.

Many of us went out for various sports and other activities. Several juniors were members of the different athletic teams. We were proud of the boys on the baseball team who won the title of "State Champs."

We took part in the Glee Club programs as well as those of the band and orchestra.

In October we united with the rest of the student body in the Fatima processions in which the statue of Our Lady of Fatima was carried through the city of Rutland.

The Student Retreat was another event which we shall never forget, with Father Raymond of the Franciscan Order conducting the exercises.

Many juniors won positions on the Clarion Board with Patricia Abatiell as Editor-in-Chief. Several students of our class were also on the Business Board.

In April we obtained our Class rings which we will treasure always.

With the completion of our junior year we looked forward with great expectations to what the future had in store for us as seniors at the Mount.

At the beginning of our senior year, we welcomed Father Lynch as Principal of the Academy, and Miss Jean Smith, a graduate of the Mount, as a new member of the faculty.

In September we chose the following class officers: President, Theodore Salerni; Vice President, Jean Solari; Secretary, John Creed; Treasurer, Francis Rice. The Commerce Club also had its election of officers early in September. Therese Gregory was elected president; Joan Brunelle, vice president; Betty Mecier, secretary; and Carol Harrison, treasurer. The senior council included Bernard Stewart, Mary Ann McDevitt, John Seaver, William Levins, Andrew Orzel, Francis Perry, Gloria Goodell, Bernadette Berard, and Carol Harrison.

Weekly assemblies were held in which the seniors took an active part. Members of our class who were on the Clarion Staff were: Patricia Abatiell, Editor-in-Chief; Mary Terenzini and Patricia Blanchard, Assistant Editors; Leo Stack, Associate Editor; and Margaret Carreau, Business Manager.

Early in October, Mary Terenzini was appointed Editor of the 1950 edition of the "Mount" with Francis Perry as business manager. Leo Stack brought credit to the Academy when he was chosen teen-age representative for Extension Magazine, the National Catholic Monthly.

The social activities at the Academy got underway with the Freshman Reception held October 28 at St. Peter's Hall. The Student Council had the honor of conducting the event.

In November, the monitor system was installed. The first squad included four seniors from each home room: Theodore Wierzbicki, Eleanor Socinski, Marian Segale, Philip Murphy, Betty Troumbley, John Seaver, Bernard Stewart, Patricia Abatiell, Marion Symons, Marie Nichols, Anthony Zingale and Richard Marotti.

Congratulations were extended to Coach Casey and the '49 football team for winning the State Championship. With John Creed as captain and Robert O'Brien, Ronald Keefe, and Edward Dalto as managers, the winning team, including several of our senior boys, did a splendid job on the gridiron.

On November 22, 23, and 24 the boys put on a very successful Minstrel Show. Grant Villemaire was interlocutor and three of our seniors were endmen: Stephen Clifford, Frank Coladonato, and Philip Murphy.

In December more honors came to the school with the selection of Mr. Casey as Coach of the Year. The All-State team included the following seniors: John Creed, Leon Bernardo, and Anthony Zingale. A Christmas play, "Why the Chimes Rang" was presented in the gym with Barbara Rudd, Eleanor Socinski, Jack Burke, Bernard Stewart, and Marian Segale taking part.

The Student Retreat was conducted in January by Father Mayrand, Oblate of Mary Immaculate.

At the close of a successful basketball season the Mounties were the winners of the Southern Vermont Tournament.

In April, William Allard and Francis Perry were named valedictorian and salutatorian, respectively, of the class of 1950.

On May 1 we had our annual May Procession with the entire student body participating. Joan Brunelle, President of St. Peter's Sodality, and Charlene Ryan, President of Christ the King Sodality crowned the statues of the Blessed Virgin. Class bouquets were presented by Barbara Rudd, Gloria Rios, and Carol Harrison.

On May 7, the girls attended the May Breakfast at the Hotel Bardwell as guests of the alumnae. Father Lynch was speaker for the occasion. May 14, the following Sunday a graduation concert was presented featuring piano and vocal solos. Those taking part were: Eleanore Socinski, Therese Gregory, Jeanne Burke, Patricia Abatiell, Rita LaMaurie, Maureen Fitzsimmons, Elizabeth Valenty, Robert Whittemore, and John Seaver.

The Senior Retreat was given at the end of May by Father Galligan, S.S.E. This was one of the highlights of our senior year. The class received Holy Communion in a body at the closing Mass.

Tonight, on the occasion of our Class Night exercises, we can not help feeling that our four years of high school have sped by much too swiftly. With our class picnic tomorrow and the senior ball on Thursday evening, only one day remains until that great occasion of Commencement at St. Peter's Church, Friday evening, June 9.

We realize that our high school days are over, but the happy memory of our years at the Academy and the many friends we have made will live in our memories always.

May the efforts and ideals of this class be as soaring and far-reaching as the song of the little messenger who imparted this information.

 JOHN SULLIVAN gladly wills his lone pair of dungarees to Jack Hurley. I hope Jack will give them more of a rest than Johnny did.

 JAMES MARANVILLE bequeaths his drawings to the National Art Museum.
 LEO STACK donates his brain to science for the betterment of civilization. We feel sure this will be a worthwhile contribution.
 TED SALERNI reluctantly passes on his wardrobe to Ernie Tesconi. You have a high standard to maintain Ernie.

We Crown Thee Today

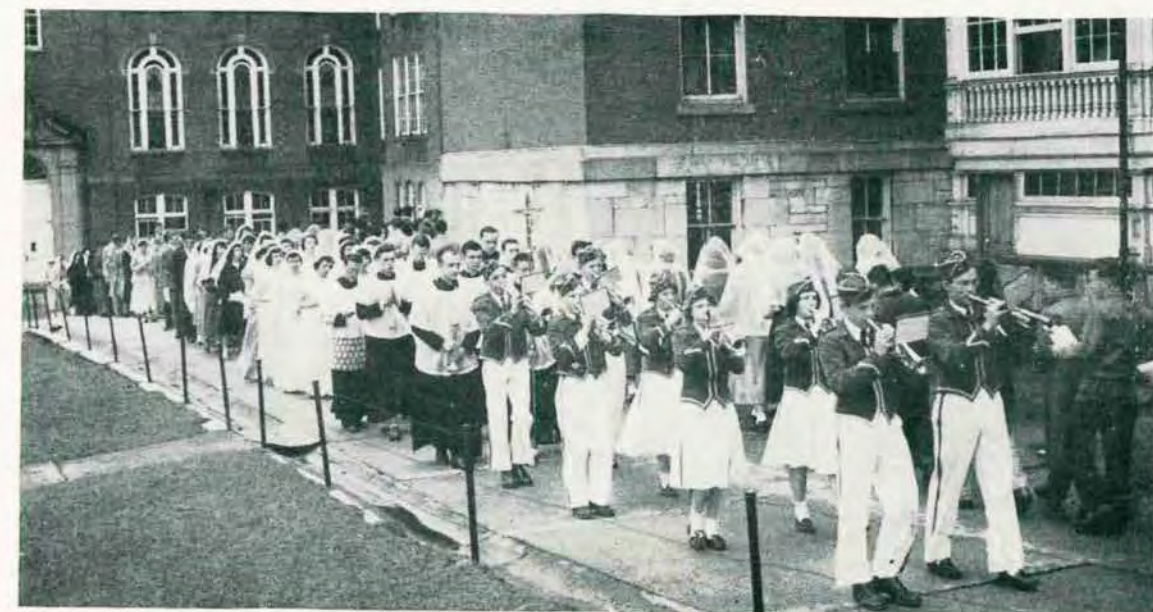

Joan Brunelle crowns Our Lady in Chapel

The Faculty and student body of Mount Saint Joseph Academy participate in the traditional May Procession which terminates in the Convent Chapel.

A special feature added this year was the double crowning of statues of Our Lady by Joan Brunelle and Charlene Ryan.

The line of march includes a stop at Our Lady of Lourdes' Grotto on the Convent grounds, a circle of St. Joseph's shrine and a recessional to the Academy.

In the chapel, Our Lady's altar is banked with flowers presented by students, and the beautiful statue of Mary is crowned. The ceremony concludes with solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

The Procession winds around St. Joseph's Shrine

CLARION EDITORIAL BOARD

A desk overflowing with papers, glue and scissors busily at work, pencils writing and then a hurried erasure—these are the distinguishing marks of a "Clarion" being readied for the press. At last the proof—now comes proof-reading, once, twice, and then again—but the finished product is worth the all-out effort. Blazing headlines announce Senior honors, our May procession, a faculty change, or a recent sport's victory. Whatever it may be, all students eagerly await its coming.

This year's staff comprised of Seniors, Juniors, and Sophomores, under the capable editorship of Patricia Abatiell, published the "Clarion" twice a month. A hard-working group, they injected many new and original ideas which are the basis of any good newspaper. Margaret Carreau was our very able business manager, who's own enthusiastic spirit she passed on to all who had the pleasure of working with her.

At this time, a sincere note of gratitude goes to Sister Mary Barbara, our faculty adviser, who gave so much of her time to this work and inspired our future journalists.

The Bond Uniting All Classes

THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

O Sacred Heart, O Love Divine
Do keep us near to Thee
And make our hearts so like to Thine
That we may holy be.

Heart of Jesus, hear
O Heart of Love, Divine
Listen to our prayer
Make us always Thine.

The Classes

To The Juniors

As we go on our separate way
The Junior class we greet,
We leave days serious and gay
With problems you must meet.
Our wish for you, with every heart
For health, good luck, and cheer.
In loving thoughts as we depart,
From the Mount we hold so dear.

To The Sophomores

Merry Sophomores, in the Fall,
Though we're absent from these halls,
Yours the duty still to keep,
Mount Saint Joseph's memory sweet.
Loyal spirit, effort true,—
Sophomores, we depend on you.

To The Freshmen

Freshman class, you start to do,
Many things that seem quite new.
High school life has just begun,
For your days of work and fun.
Time for you will quickly pass—
Soon you'll be the Senior class.

FOOTBALL

by RED LEVINS

This is the story of the 1950 Mount Saint Joseph's unconquered Green Wave which was unbeaten, untied, and who climaxed a most wonderful season, with an unprecedented 20-0 bombardment of Rutland's Red Raiders.

Sweeping light bedraggled foes aside with amazing ease, the Mounties left little doubt as to who was the champion in the Green Mountains. Who could challenge them?

In 1948, Ed Casey migrated from Barre to Rutland and inherited the coaching chores at the Mount. Assisted by capable Bob Rounds, he began to build a team, which this year matured with an untarnished record, the State Championship, and crowned Maestro Casey, Coach of the Year, in our fair state.

Let's look over the seniors first, who performed so well. This was their last and most glorious campaign. There's Johnny Creed, captain and All-State end on this astonishing squad. And right next to him is big Tony Zingale.

Pooch Levins (45) gives a stiff arm to Granville player as he heads for the end zone.

Tony is another member of the elite All-State eleven, in fact he was the only unanimous choice for this honor. Continuing on our way, there's little "Butch" Bernardo, whose swivel-hipped jaunts thrilled all of us. He's the third member of the Acads to be picked on the All-Vermont squad. Who's that next to "Butch"? Tony Vitagliano, whose play at tackle was good enough to earn him a second team berth on the "All" team. We can't forget "Tiger Ted" Salerni—. Here's Frannie Perry and Phil Murphy who were two big reasons why the Mounties backfield was regarded as the finest in the area. Over there—that's Pete Cioffi, the quarterback and star punter of the State Championship eleven. He's with rugged Tony Fusco, star tackle. Sure there weren't just seniors on the team. Look at big Ernie Zambon, the "Chug Chug" kid who is all-State fullback. And Bill Nugent, another all-State operator at Center. What about Pooch Levins, a speedy halfback, and ends Tom Lovett and Al Barbagallo? They're all juniors who should make life easier for Coach Casey when September rolls around again.

The Green Wave opened the season on the right foot when they thumped Granville, N. Y., always a threat. The cocky Empire-Staters were awed at the surprising showing of the Acads. "Butch" Bernardo, the atomic flea bolted over for a touchdown in the final period, and Ernie Zambon's talented toe added the finishing touch to a 7-0 victory. The Saint forward wall, called by many the finest ever to represent the Academy, was brilliant with Tony Zingale and Ted Salerni stnading out.

Victory number two came easier. One week later the Wave traveled to Bellows Falls and leveled the supposedly-powerful Purple, 33-7. Zambon, charging like a wounded bull, led the offensive attack and he was ably assisted by Bernardo and Pooch Levins. The line excelled as usual with Captain Creed and Bill Nugent doing yeoman work.

Six days later under the lights at St. Peter's Field, the high-flying Wave downed Spaulding of Barre, 27-0. The usually strong boys from the Granite City were so much putty in the hands of the Mounties. "Beetle" Bernardo tallied twice, while Zambon and Pete Cioffi crossed into paydirt once each. "Toto" Vitagliano, Zingale, and Nugent were the spotlight performers up front.

Ernie Zambon, John Creed and Tony Zingale beam happily after receiving the City Trophy as City Champions

Al Barbagallo (50) after completing a pass, heads for pay-dirt.

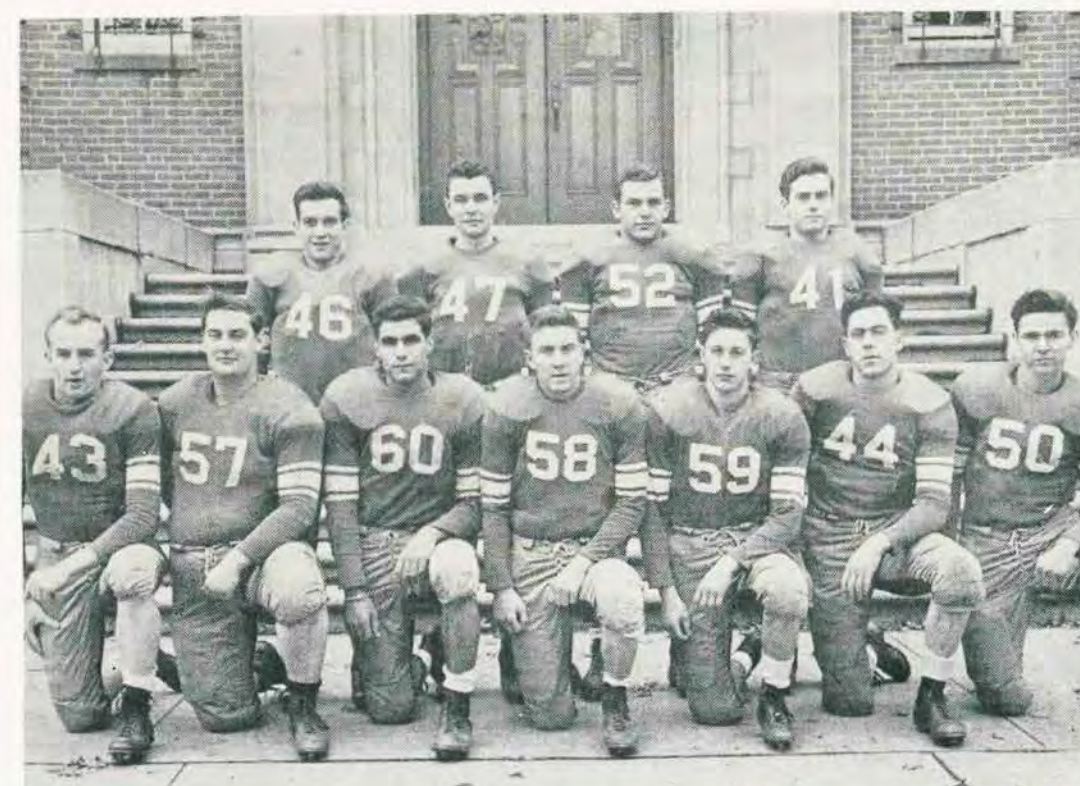

Bennington was next on the list. On the lamp-lit turf of St. Peter's Field Mt. St. Joseph romped to a 33-0 win over the Clawless Cats. Phil Murphy, Fran Perry and Peter Cioffi shone in the backfield, while Al Barbagallo and Tony Fusco grabbed the limelight up front.

The high-flying Mounties were not to be detoured from the victory trail and they next rendered Springfield numb, 38-0; Zambon, Cioffi, Nugent and Salerni all starred.

Trudging to Burlington a week later to meet Cathedral, pride of the North, the Saints amazed Queen City fans by bopping the Little Indians, 27-6. Zambon was terrific as were Perry, Zingale, Creed and Nugent.

Back: Peter Cioffi, Francis Perry, Ernest Zambon, Philip Murphy.

St. Mary's was next in line for the hatchet. They were decapitated 38-0 as the thoughts of the eager Acads left ahead toward November 11 and Rutland.

Came the big day—Armistice Day—and full scale warfare descended upon hitherto-peaceful St. Peter's Field. Twenty-five hundred screaming fans filed into the River Street ball yard to witness what promised to be a ding-dong dog fight all the way. Within a matter of minutes, however, the sizzling Saints shattered all hopes of a Rutland Victory.

Pete Cioffi skirted in from 18 yards out for the initial TD and "Chug Chug" Zambon crashed through for the extra point and a 7-0 M. S. J. lead. The tally remained thus at half-time. Once the second half got underway, Coach Casey unveiled his big guns and the Raiders were helpless. Cioffi scored twice more and Zambon bulled through on a single extra point to make the final tally 20-0. Everyone performed magnificently. Cioffi Levins and Zambon were especially effective in the back-field with the work of the latter winning for him the Msgr. Brown Memorial Trophy, presented annually to the outstanding performer in the November 11th tilt. The work of the line was superb with Vitagliano, Zingale and Nugent shining. There was not a shadow of a doubt but M. S. J. was the best in the city, county, or state.

Runner-Up Trophy Is Presented to the 1950 M. S. J. Team.

Back: Manager Earle Goodrich, Bill Nugent, Captain Jack Hurley, Tom Lovett, Hank Coladonato, Al Barbagallo, Coach Ed Casey.

Not to be outdone in any degree by their immediate predecessors, the State Championship football array, Coach Eddie Casey's basketball squad blazed a searing trail with which few opponents could contend. Although the Saints didn't quite reach the top spot, they were so close that they must be ranked with the finest of all Green Wave hoop groups. Who can complain about the runner-up spot to the Vermont title holders?

The Acads opened their season rather inauspiciously with a pair of one point losses to Cathedral and Granville, but soon proceeded to sweep their next trio of foes aside with little ado before embarking on their perilous jaunt through the powerful Southern Vermont League.

Casey's eager beavers opened their League campaign with a two point win over West Rutland. They followed this by defeating Hartford, then received their first loop setback, a 35-30 affair with Springfield. Just beginning to hit their stride the Saints were wonderful in belting always dangerous Rutland, 34-25. M. S. J. racked up their fourth and fifth S. V. L. successes by dropping Bellows Falls and Windsor, but Bennington's clawing Cats interrupted the Wave's win skein with a 35-34 victory. In another important to-do, the Saints edged Brattleboro, the league pace-setter, 32-28. By virtue of this victory, the Acads jumped into a first place tie for the league lead as the first half of the season ended.

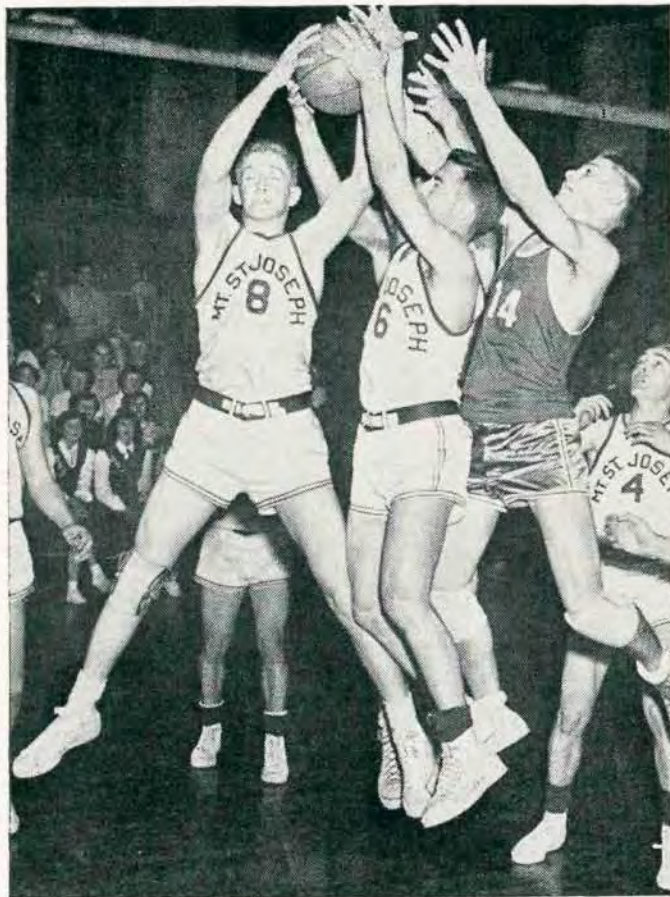

The Caseymen compiled an identical 6-2 record in the second half of the schedule and their 12-4 league mark earned them a tie for the second spot in the S. V. L. West Rutland and Brattleboro were the only clubs to beat M. S. J., both heartbreaking on one point decisions. However, decisive victories over Rutland High (39-20) and Bennington (36-21) offset these losses and sent the Acads into the annual Rotary Tournament confident that they could go "all the way."

And all the way they went. In the opening round they disposed of the troublesome Bennington group 47-35. Then in the Southern Tourney finals before 1800 screaming fans, the Saints were really wonderful in coming from an 11-point deficit to top an inspired Red Raider outfit, 34-31.

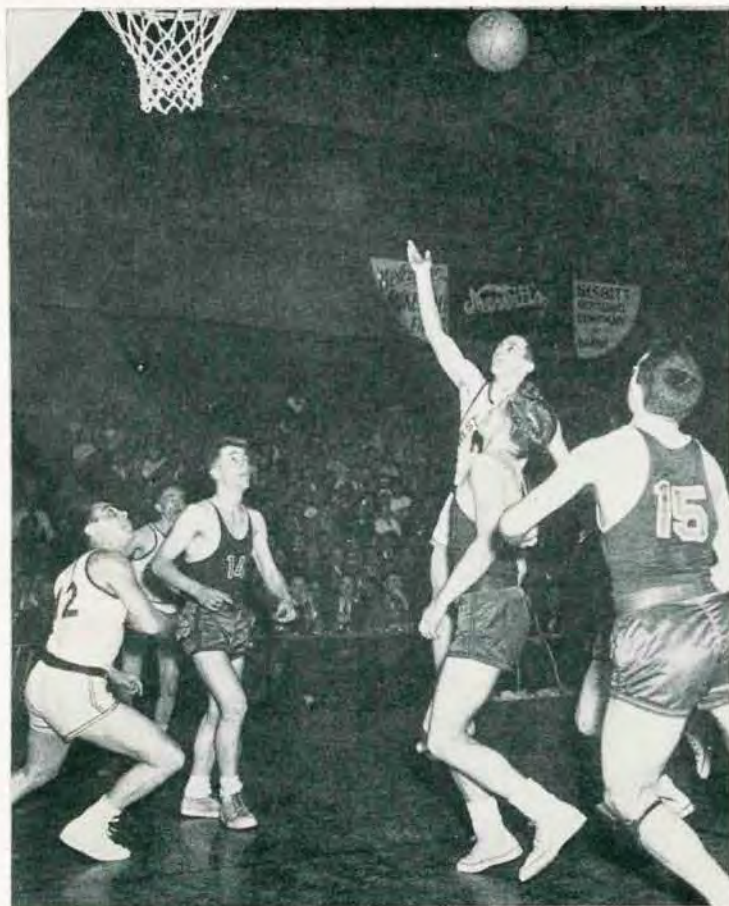

Then it was on to Barre for the big one. 3000 rabid rooters packed the Granite City Auditorium to witness a dog-eat-dog affair between the Mounties and Spaulding of Barre, pride of the North. Enjoying a definite psychological as well as home court advantage, the well-drilled Crimson Tide led throughout and at times threatened to run away from Ed Casey's boys. But with minutes remaining the Acads stormed from 10 points back. They lost, 48-46, but they had reason to be proud in defeat to Spaulding, a real good ball club.

Capt. Jack Hurley dribbles down-court with Rutland's Dick Grace close behind. Tony Fusco, M. S. J., and Bob Perkins, R. H. S., are moving in on the play.

Tom Lovett (8) and Bill Nugent (6) go way up for a rebound with Springfield. Jack Hurley (4) readies for the return action

Academy's Tony Fusco and Jack Hurley are prepared to grab the tap should Pooch Levins fail.

SO, it was only the runner-up spot? Do you want blood? The Mounties accumulated an overall record of 17 wins and 6 defeats against the hardest opposition the Green Mountains could muster.

Next year's squad will be deprived of the services of Captain Jack Hurley, Tony Fusco, and Pete Cioffi, all starters and excellent ball players. However, prospects can't be too dim with Tom Lovett, the Wave's leading scorer, and Pat Levins, a driving back-court specialist on the list of returnees. Also coming back will be Bill Nugent, Bob Vignoe, Bob Romano, Dom Cioffi and Al Barbagallo.

Help can also be expected from the younger element. "Nel" Rounds' Jayvee hoop group piled up ten wins in 16 outings and the M. S. J. representatives in the annual Frosh-Soph tourney were likewise successful. The first-year men grabbed the trophy in their division by blasting West Rutland, while the Sophs ended up second best to Rutland's talented second season performers.

The whistle screeches—"Time Out" bellows the referee—and from the sidelines come our "seven little girls in green." Taking one of their various positions—megaphones are raised. "Are you ready?" reaches the ears of every loyal fan—and as if all were one, the cheers echo and re-echo.

This is only a part of the colorful performance added to each game by our cheerleaders. Seniors and acting captains were Joan Brunelle, Verna Senecal and Mary Terenzini. The rest of the squad consisting of Juniors and Sophomores included Jean West, Joan Minard (who was absent from football season due to an operation, Marilyn Carroll, Eileen O'Rourke and Margaret Canary.

Baseball

Row two: Bob Vignoe, Skip Goodrich, Tony Fusco, Sam Rizziere, Butch Bernardo, Dom Cioffi.

Like that old man River, the Mount's athletic combines continued to roll along—sweeping aside all opponents who blocked their path. The Green Wave baseball crew, under the guidance of Maestro "Bob" Rounds, is no exception as they rush headlong into a schedule with numerous dangerous hindrances.

The Saints inaugurated the 1950 campaign with an 8-0 skinning of Wallingford's Foxes. Bobby Vignoe, M. S. J.'s stylish left-hander, was the winner, allowing only five bingles and striking out a dozen of the enemy. Red Orzel, Pat Levins, Leon Bernardo and Tony Fusco supplied the offensive punch for the Mounties.

The Roundsmen survived a serious threat in their second contest when they won over a good Fair Haven crew, 4-2. Levins, Orzel, Al Barbagallo, and Sammy Rizziere furnished the stick-work while Butch Bernardo was effective in the clutches and notched his initial victory of the season.

Victory number three was not long in arriving. Pete Cioffi, on the mount for the Acads, limited Poultney to three hits as M. S. J. triumphed, 3-1. Orzel and Hank Coladonato were the only Wavesters to connect safely, but loose fielding by the visiting Poultney aggregation aided the Academy.

West Rutland provided little opposition as the Saints barrelled to their fourth consecutive win, 17-4. Bernardo hurled all the way for the Green-Clads, fashioning his second success. The Wave broke out of a hitting slump by spraying a dozen hits, including a home run and triple by Pete Cioffi.

Springfield was a fly in the Mountie ointment as they sent the Saints to their first defeat, 4-0. Vignoe hurled most creditably for M. S. J., but the Springfield pitcher, Norm Wallace, surrendered only two hits, by Barbagallo and Earl Goodrich, to the Mounties.

The Green Wave re-discovered the victory trail in Woodstock, beating the outclassed Wasps, 13-2. Bernardo had it easy as he carved win number three behind a violent hit barrage sent up by his mates. Coladonato thumped a round tripper and a triple while Barbagallo, Cioffi, and Levins assembled eight hits between them.

Pete Cioffi's airtight pitching was the whole story as the Saints suffocated Rutland, 2-1, and thereby jumped into a one game advantage in the race for the City Championship. Cioffi allowed only one hit over the seven inning route and he was afforded good support by his teammates. Cioffi himself, Pooch Levins, Hank Coladonato, Al Barbagallo and Red Orzel contributed to the Green Wave offensive drive.

The Acads continued to get wonderful pitching as they trampled Woodstock, 10-0, this time behind the one hit hurling of Bobby Vignoe. The smooth-as-silk southpaw struck out fourteen Wasps and was unscathed by a hit until the final chukker. Hank Coladonato and Pat Levins all weighed in with a brace of hits.

The Roundsmen suffered their second defeat of the year, this time at the hands of Fair Haven, 6-2. Freshman Paul O'Brien chained the Saint bats and surrendered only four safe blows. Butch Bernardo went the distance for M. S. J. and twirled creditably enough, but loose support cost him his first loss of the campaign.

Traveling to Amsterdam, New York, for a battle with talented St. Mary's, the Mounties experienced defeat number three, literally "kicking" the game away, 9-8. Hank Coladonato started for the Academy, but when he retired three frames later, M. S. J. trailed, 9-3. Bobby Vignoe finished in exemplary fashion for the Saints while the Roundsmen staged an admirable, but futile, comeback. Butch Bernardo, Al Barbagallo, Pooch Levins and Coladonato chipped in with the heaviest barrage.
